

Rachel Le Brocq

Rachel is the Press and Public Manager for the BSA. She has specific responsibility for comment on all savings issues including the Association's quarterly cash Child Trust Fund statistical release. Rachel edits the Association's magazine, Society Matters, e-newsletter Newsbite and The Building Societies Yearbook. She also monitors all political and public affairs activity for the Association.

Rachel joined the Association in 2003. She previously worked in graduate recruitment at the University of Plymouth before taking a gap year to travel. She attended the University of Gloucestershire where she studied Business and Tourism Management.