

Building Societies Yearbook 2008-09

The Building Societies Yearbook is the official handbook of the Building Societies Association, with all the latest facts and figures from the UK's mortgage industry. Its 200 pages are packed with:

- Features from experts on subjects including the housing and mortgage markets, Treating Customers Fairly, lost accounts, Government designed savings products and The Banking Code
- Listings of Association members, including key contacts within each building society
- Statistical data including key figures for each society (assets, shares, borrowings, investing and borrowing members, ATMs and branches)
- Details of mergers, acquisitions and changes of status

The Yearbook is the definitive reference book, and perfect for anyone wanting to research the competition, develop marketing plans, source information on potential clients and gain access to market information.

And at just £50 (including p+p within the UK) it offers outstanding value.
